Part A – Provisions relating to byelaws

Promulgation and maintenance of byelaws and regulations

1. The Council shall promulgate a new byelaw or regulation by posting a copy in the Room.
2. The Council shall maintain, whether electronically or otherwise, a volume of byelaws and regulations which shall be available for inspection by any person during reasonable hours.

The Financial Services Authority

3. So far as it is possible to do so, every requirement of the Council must be read and given effect by the Council in a way which is compatible with the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 and any applicable rule, direction, requirement, principle, evidential provision, code and guidance made, issued or given by the Financial Services Authority under that Act.
4. If the Council is satisfied that any requirement of the Council is incompatible with any provision of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or any rule, direction, requirement, principle, evidential provision, code or guidance made, issued or given by the Financial Services Authority under that Act the Council may dispense any person to whom the requirement applied or applies from complying with the requirement with effect from the day on which the incompatibility arose.
5. Any dispensation given under paragraph 3 of this byelaw
 - (a) may be made individually or in respect of any class or classes of person;
 - (b) may make different provision for different cases; and
 - (c) may include such additional directions, conditions or requirements as the Council considers necessary or appropriate.
6. The Council may, for the purpose of giving effect to, implementing or discharging any direction, requirement or obligation that the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or the Financial Services Authority has given to, placed on or imposed on the Council or the Society, give a direction to any person or any class or classes of person carrying on the business of insurance at Lloyd's to do such acts and things as may be necessary or appropriate.

Waiver

7. The Council may at any time direct that, to the extent specified, any person shall be dispensed from compliance with any provision of any requirement of the Council if it considers that –
 - (a) compliance would be unduly burdensome on the person in relation to whom the dispensation is to apply having regard to the benefit that compliance would confer on members or Lloyd’s policyholders; and
 - (b) the dispensation will not result in any undue risk to any member or any Lloyd’s policyholder.

8. Any directions given under paragraph 7 of this byelaw -
 - (a) may be made individually or in respect of any class or classes of persons;
 - (b) may be varied or revoked from time to time in whole or in part or as to any period, condition or requirement;
 - (c) may make different provisions for different cases; and
 - (d) may include provisions for the disclosure to any persons whether by the person to whom the direction is given or by the Council of the circumstances and details of the dispensation including the disclosure of the name of the person to whom the direction is given.

- 8A. The Committee of Lloyd’s

Any reference to “the Committee” (being the Committee as previously constituted by Section 5, Lloyd’s Act 1982) in the requirements of the Council shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be deemed to be a reference to the Council.

Part B – Confidentiality

Disclosure of confidential information by the Council

9. The Council shall not disclose confidential information without the consent of the person from whom it was received and the person whom it concerns unless disclosure is required by law or disclosure is for the purposes of –
 - (a) criminal proceedings;
 - (b) enforcement proceedings;
 - (c) assisting the Financial Services Authority or a body which performs any corresponding functions outside the United Kingdom; or
 - (d) advancing and protecting the interests of the Society as a whole provided such disclosure has been authorised by the Council.

Requirements to protect the confidentiality of information disclosed by the Council

10. A person subject to the enforcement jurisdiction of the Society shall comply with any requirements that the Council may give in connection with the disclosure of confidential information to that person as may be reasonably necessary to protect the confidentiality of that information.

Part C – Premiums Trust Funds

Directions, conditions and requirements relating to the regulating trustee

11. The Council may at any time give such directions or impose such conditions or requirements in connection with any discretion, power or authority which the regulating trustee has in relation to any premiums trust deed and whoever exercises that discretion, power or authority shall act in accordance with any such direction, condition or requirement.
12. Any delegation or sub-delegation of any discretion, power or authority which the regulating trustee has in relation to any premiums trust deed shall include provision that the delegate or sub-delegate shall act in accordance with any direction condition or requirement given or imposed under paragraph 11 of this byelaw.

Prescription of notifiable events and nomination of company

13. The Council may –
 - (a) prescribe any matter as a ‘notifiable event’ for the purposes of one or more premiums trust deeds;
 - (b) nominate any company for the purposes of one or more premiums trust deeds as a person with whom premiums trust funds may be deposited or to whom premiums trust funds may be lent.

Part D – Annual accounts

Accounts

14. The Society shall prepare annual accounts made up to the 31st day of December so as to show a true and fair view of the income and expenditure of the Society for the year and its state of affairs and such accounts shall be approved by the Council.

Audit

15. The Council shall appoint auditors who shall report whether in their opinion the accounts give a true and fair view of the income and expenditure of the Society and of its state of affairs.
16. A person shall be eligible for appointment as auditors where that person is eligible for appointment as a company auditor under sections 24, 25 and 26 of the Companies Act 1989, provided that a person eligible only by reason of subsection 25(3) shall not be eligible.

Part E – Notices

17. Unless Lloyd's Acts 1871 to 1982 or the requirements of Council provide otherwise, notices required to be given to members by the Society shall be given by posting in the Room.

Part F – Transitional and miscellaneous provisions
