

The background of the page is a solid blue color. Overlaid on this background is a large, light blue calligraphic stroke, likely representing the Chinese character '世' (Shì), which means 'world' or 'generation'. The stroke is fluid and expressive, with varying thickness and some ink-like texture.

Fine Art and Specie Consortium at Lloyd's China

Fine Art and Specie Consortium at Lloyd's China

This consortium was established since 1st September 2017, aiming to pool the underwriting expertise and capacities of Lloyd's on fine art and specie business in the China market. Currently the consortium is supported by

- ArgoGlobal Underwriting Division, and
 - Argenta Underwriting Division.
-

Who we are

James Miao, Director
ArgoGlobal Underwriting Division of Lloyd's China
Email: James.Miao@lloyds.com

Yan Jun, Marine Underwriting Manager
ArgoGlobal Underwriting Division of Lloyd's China
Email: Jun.Yan@lloyds.com

What we write

Reinsurance support for fine art and specie risks in China including but not limited to:

- Fine art and jewellery collections by public entities (museums) and private collectors;
- Fine art exhibitions within China or overseas;
- Fine art lent by foreign museums / collectors to be exhibited in China;
- Fine art / jewellery in the possession of auction firms.

Coverage can be provided for the insured interest during:

- Transportation;
 - Stay and/or exhibition;
 - Nail to nail (including transportation, exhibition and return).
-

What we offer

- USD30million pooled capacity;
 - In-depth knowledge of China fine art/specie market and China insurance market policy wordings;
 - Local underwriting expertise on fine art/specie with quick response time;
 - Risk survey and risk management recommendations to the reinsured and/or clients;
 - Dedicated claims handling resources with experience of fine art and specie losses in the Chinese market.
-

Contact

If you have any inquiries, please contact the leading underwriters directly and/or email to Gigi.Chen@lloyds.com.
For more information about Lloyd's China, please visit www.lloyds.com.cn.