

Chapter 1 Requirements made under the Underwriting Byelaw

Permission to act as an underwriting agent – Part A of the Underwriting Byelaw

Criteria for deciding whether an applicant is suitable to be granted permission to act as an underwriting agent – paragraph 8(b) of the Underwriting Byelaw

1. In deciding whether an applicant is suitable to be granted permission to act as an underwriting agent the Council shall assess each application on its own merits and in a manner consistent with the legal requirements that apply to the Lloyd's new entrant process. In doing so, it shall have regard to the following criteria –
  - (a) the extent to which the applicant's proposed business adds value to the Lloyd's market having regard to –
    - (i) the protection of the Central Fund;
    - (ii) the protection of confidence in the Lloyd's market;
    - (iii) broadening or retaining the underwriting expertise or innovation offered in the Lloyd's market;
    - (iv) increasing access to new or emerging lines of business;
    - (v) broadening members' access to business;
    - (vi) broadening members' access to new policyholders;
    - (vii) broadening members' access to new and emerging markets particularly through the use of Lloyd's overseas underwriting arrangements.
  - (b) whether the applicant is a competent, proficient and capable organisation. In considering this the Council may have regard to the following matters –
    - (i) the nature of the applicant's business;
    - (ii) the applicant's compliance with appropriate principles of good corporate governance;
    - (iii) the quality and adequacy of the applicant's human resources including –
      - (i) the competence, reputation, character and suitability of each of the applicant's directors;
      - (ii) the collective suitability of the applicant's board of directors and of each of its committees;
      - (iii) the competence, reputation, character and suitability of the applicant's officers and trustees;
      - (iv) the competence, reputation, character and suitability of the applicant's staff;

- (v) the quality and adequacy of the applicant's training and development programme; and
  - (vi) in the case of an applicant applying for permission to act as a managing agent, the past, present and forecast underwriting performance of the applicant's underwriters;
- (iv) the quality and adequacy of the applicant's other resources including -
- (i) the quality and adequacy of the applicant's information technology systems;
  - (ii) the quality and adequacy of the applicant's accounting and credit control systems;
  - (iii) the quality and adequacy of the applicant's consultants, advisers, service providers and agents;
  - (iv) the quality and adequacy of the applicant's resources to set and comply with appropriate service standards for its customers;
  - (v) the quality and adequacy of the applicant's resources to comply with such principles and standards for the conduct or administration of insurance business as the Council may from time to time prescribe, recognise or endorse;
  - (vi) the quality and adequacy of the applicant's record keeping arrangements; and
  - (vii) in the case of an applicant applying for permission to act as a managing agent, the quality and adequacy of the applicant's resources and systems for underwriting administration;
- (v) the quality and adequacy of the applicant's controls and procedures to manage its business including –
- (i) the quality and adequacy of the applicant's risk management and internal audit arrangements;
  - (ii) the quality and adequacy of the applicant's compliance arrangements;
  - (iii) the quality and adequacy of the applicant's arrangements to manage its service providers and agents;
  - (iv) the applicant's arrangements for identifying, resolving or managing conflicts of interest; and
  - (v) in the case of an applicant applying for permission to act as an managing agent, the quality and adequacy of the applicant's controls and procedures for the management of underwriting risk;
- (c) whether the applicant is of appropriate reputation and standing;

- (d) whether any person who controls the applicant or who is connected or associated with the applicant is of appropriate reputation and standing;
- (e) whether the applicant has adequate capital and financial resources;
- (f) whether the applicant is able to meet Lloyd's performance framework of Minimum Standards applicable to them.

Criteria for deciding whether an applicant is suitable to be granted permission to manage a syndicate – paragraph 8(c) of the Underwriting Byelaw

2. In deciding whether a managing agent is suitable to manage a syndicate the Council shall have regard to the criteria set out in paragraph 1 above having regard to the nature and quality of the business plan prepared and submitted by the managing agent in respect of the syndicate in question. The Council will assess each application on its own merits and in a manner consistent with the legal requirements that apply to the Lloyd's new entrant process.

Principles of relationship and service standards – Part B of the Underwriting Byelaw

Service standards – paragraph 12 of the Underwriting Byelaw

- 3A. The Council has prescribed the following standards and arrangements for the conduct and administration of insurance business at Lloyd's provided always that failure to comply with these standards and arrangements shall not invalidate or call into question any contract or agreement entered into by or on behalf of a managing agent or syndicate nor shall failure to comply with these standards and arrangements create any right of action or claim in any third party against a managing agent or syndicate, the authority to enforce compliance being exclusively vested in the Council –
- (a) a managing agent shall not permit the syndicate stamp of a syndicate managed by it to be affixed to any contract or contracts of insurance unless –
    - (i) the contract is in the format and has been completed in accordance with the guidance issued by the London Market Group (or any successor body fulfilling the same role) from time to time ;
    - (ii) the contract is marked as “Exempt” from the format prescribed in paragraph (i) by reason of client requirement; or
    - (iii) the contract relates to motor business, personal lines business or term life insurance business and the contract will not be processed by LPSO Limited;
  - (b) a managing agent shall not permit the syndicate stamp of a syndicate managed by it to be affixed to any binding authority unless the binding authority has been completed in accordance with the relevant guidelines from time to time issued by the London Market Group (or any successor body fulfilling the same role);
  - (c) a managing agent shall not permit the syndicate stamp of a syndicate managed by it to be affixed to any line slip unless the line slip has been completed in accordance with the relevant guidelines from time to time issued by the London Market Group (or any successor body fulfilling the same role).
- 3B. Lloyd's has established a Volume Claims Service and, under that service, a managing agent may enter into arrangements with a service provider recognised and accredited by the Council as being suitable to determine claims within the scope of the service within the contractually required service standards.

In that context, in deciding whether a service provider is suitable at all times to be recognised as an accredited service provider the Council shall have regard to the following matters –

- (a) whether the service provider is a competent, proficient and capable organisation to provide a volume claims service. In considering this the Council shall have regard to the following matters –
- (i) the service provider’s ISAE 3402 report (or other suitable report) prepared by a reputable professional services firm or such other report as may be determined by the Council;
- (ii) the quality of the service provider’s human resources including –
- the competence, knowledge, experience and reputation of the service provider’s directors;
  - the competence, knowledge, experience and reputation of the service provider’s staff and, in particular, of the service provider’s claims adjusting staff and their knowledge and experience of –
    - providing a volume claims service;
    - the relevant classes of business; and
    - London market processes and systems;
- (iii) the adequacy of the service provider’s human resources including –
- the number of staff that the service provider will assign or dedicate to the provision of the volume claims service;
  - how those staff will be organised and grouped including by geographical location;
  - the service providers plans for managing workflow and the day to day and periodic peaks and troughs of demand; and
  - the service provider’s plans and strategy for recruiting, retaining, developing, training and replacing staff;
- (iv) the quality and adequacy of the service provider’s other resources including –
- the quality, adequacy and compatibility of the service provider’s systems and information and technology systems and, in particular, of its systems for –

- the tracking and management of claims whilst they are being determined and the recording of the reasons for decisions;
  - the setting, adjustment and recording of case reserves; and
  - fraud and counter-fraud management , the handling of suspicious loss notifications and the reduction of ‘claims leakage’;
  - the capturing and reporting of management information and data, in particular, for managing information relating to contractual service standards;
- the quality and adequacy of the service providers accounting and invoicing arrangements; and
  - its reliance on outsourced service providers or sub-contractors and the quality and adequacy of the governance supporting such arrangements;
- (v) the service provider’s approach and any track record in providing a volume claims service and in particular to –
- meeting the required service standards and complying the terms of the standard form of volume claims service contract;
  - claims and service management and to continuous improvement;
  - fraud and counter-fraud management , the handling of suspicious loss notifications and the reduction of ‘claims leakage’;
  - to setting reserves in accordance with clear and concise processes, procedures and philosophy using clear and auditable documentation with appropriate management oversight and audit;
  - appointing and managing third party experts including determining whether a third party expert is required, defining the third party’s instructions and objectives;
  - identifying breaches of international sanctions by policyholders, claimants or beneficiaries of claims payments; and
  - maintaining appropriate claims files.
- (vi) the quality and adequacy of the service providers’ compliance arrangements and, in particular, its arrangements for –
- business continuity and disaster recovery arrangements;
  - arrangements for the identification, disclosure and management of conflicts of interest;
  - data protection compliance;
  - complaints reporting having to regard Lloyd’s requirements;

- Lloyd's claims management principles and minimum standards;
  - sanctions monitoring; and
  - other legal and regulatory compliance including compliance with the Bribery Act;
- (b) the service provider's solvency and the adequacy of its financial resources and professional indemnity insurance;
- (c) the service provider's standing and reputation and the standing and reputation of its controllers;
- (d) the suitability of the location of the service provider's premises from which services will be provided; and
- (e) the quality of the service provider's –
- relationship management arrangements;
  - outsources service providers and sub-contractors;
  - risk management and insurance arrangements;
  - claims quality assurance framework; and
  - compliance with appropriate principles of good corporate governance.

  - (d) credit control in collecting reinsurance recoveries; and
  - (e) maintaining statistical records.

Dispute resolution and appeals – Part M of the Underwriting Byelaw

Dispute resolution

16. The following arrangements and procedures are designed to resolve disputes between underwriting agents and the Council arising under the Underwriting Byelaw in a timely, constructive and cost effective manner.

1. “Minded to” decisions and reasons

- 1.1 Before a decision is taken by or on behalf of the Council which will be unfavourable to a specific underwriting agent the decision taker will, unless he considers that the circumstances make it inappropriate to do so –
- (a) inform the underwriting agent that the decision taker is minded to decide the matter in that way;
  - (b) provide the underwriting agent with the decision taker’s reasons for deciding the matter in that way; and
  - (c) provide the underwriting agent with an opportunity to make representations to the decision taker prior to the decision being taken.
- 1.2 Where a decision is taken by or on behalf of the Council which is unfavourable to a specific underwriting agent the decision taker will unless he considers that the circumstances make it inappropriate to do so, provide the underwriting agent with the decision taker’s reasons for deciding the matter in that way.

2. Requests to review decisions taken on behalf of the Council

Step 1 – Submitting a request for a decision to be reviewed

- 2.1 In the event that a decision is taken on behalf of the Council which is unfavourable to a specific underwriting agent, the underwriting agent may, where it reasonably and objectively considers the decision to be wrong or unreasonable, request that the decision is reviewed (a “request”).
- 2.2 A request shall be made in writing as soon as reasonably practicable following receipt of the decision. The request shall include an explanation as to why the underwriting agent considers that the decision is either wrong or unreasonable. The request shall be made on behalf of the board of directors of the underwriting agent and shall be signed by a director of the underwriting agent. The request shall be submitted to the decision taker.

Step 2 – Review of the decision by the original decision taker

- 2.3 Following receipt of the request, the decision taker shall review the request and may, where he considers appropriate, amend, modify or withdraw his decision.

Step 3 – Review of the decision by a director or the Executive Team

- 2.4 Where the decision taker does not propose to amend, modify or withdraw his decision he shall refer the request to a director or, where appropriate, to the Executive Team. The request shall be reviewed by the director or the Executive Team and, where the director or the Executive Team considers appropriate, the decision may be amended, modified or withdrawn.

Step 4 – Review of the decision by the Market Supervision and Review Committee

- 2.5 If, following the review of the request by a director or the Executive Team (including where the original decision taker was the Executive Team), the underwriting agent still reasonably and objectively considers the decision to be wrong or unreasonable, the underwriting agent may apply to the Market Supervision and Review Committee to review the request. The application shall be made in writing as soon as reasonably practicable. The application shall be made on behalf of the board of directors of the underwriting agent and shall be signed by two directors. The application shall be submitted to the Secretary to the Council.
- 2.6 The Market Supervision and Review Committee shall review the request and may, where it considers appropriate, amend, modify or withdraw the decision.

Step 5 – Application for permission to appeal to the Appeal Tribunal

- 2.7 Where, following a review of the request by the Market Supervision and Review Committee, the underwriting agent wishes to apply for permission to appeal to the Appeal Tribunal, the underwriting agent may make an application to the Market Supervision and Review Committee to do so. The application shall be made in writing as soon as reasonably practicable. The application shall be made on behalf of the board of directors of the underwriting agent and shall be signed by two directors. The application shall be submitted to the Secretary to the Council.

2.8 The Market Supervision and Review Committee may, where it considers appropriate, give permission to the underwriting agent to appeal to the Appeal Tribunal.

3. Request to review decisions taken by the Council itself

Step 1- submitting a request for a decision to be reviewed

3.1 In the event that a decision is taken by the Council which is unfavourable to a specific underwriting agent, the underwriting agent may, where it reasonably and objectively considers the decision to be wrong or unreasonable, request that the decision is reviewed (a “request”).

3.2 A request shall be made in writing as soon as reasonably practicable following receipt of the decision. The request shall include an explanation as to why the underwriting agent considers that the decision is either wrong or unreasonable. The request shall be made on behalf of the board of directors of the underwriting agent and shall be signed by two directors of the underwriting agent. The request shall be submitted to Secretary to the Council.

Step 2 – Review of the decision by the Council

3.3 The Council shall review the request and may, where it considers appropriate, amend, modify or withdraw the decision.

Step 3 – Application for permission to appeal to the Appeal Tribunal

3.4 Where, following a review of the request by the Council, the underwriting agent wishes to apply for permission to appeal to the Appeal Tribunal, the underwriting agent may make an application to the independent non-executive directors of the Council to do so. The application shall be made in writing as soon as reasonably practicable. The application shall be made on behalf of the board of directors of the underwriting agent and shall be signed by two directors. The application shall be submitted to the Secretary to the Council.

3.5 The independent non-executive directors of the Council may, where they consider appropriate, give permission to the underwriting agent to appeal to the Appeal Tribunal.
