Lloyd's General Representative in Australia is authorised to accept service of suit of legal process on behalf of Lloyd's underwriters in Australia in their capacity as registered insurers. Where underwriters agree to use the General Representative for service of suit purposes, it is recommended that slip and policy documentation refer to him by title rather than name. Service of suit provisions should be updated to show the new address.

Xchanging Ins-sure Services has been instructed to accept reference to the old address for a limited time only, after which any policies presented to Xchanging Ins-sure Services thereto will be rejected.
