Lloyd's has appointed Mr. Litha Mveliso Nyhonyha as General Representative in South Africa and Non-executive Chairman of Lloyd's South Africa (Pty) Ltd.

Litha qualified as a Chartered Account in 1989. His most recent roles include the Chief Executive Officer of NBC Holdings, an employee benefits consulting business and Executive Chairman and Founder Member of Regiments Capital, a niche financial services company, a role he will continue while acting as Lloyd's representative.

Litha will support, enhance and promote the interests of Lloyd's in South Africa, as well as work with businesses and the South African Government in the region. Litha will be working closely with Amit Khilosia, General Manager of Lloyd's SA. It should be noted that all enquires in relation to Lloyd's licence and trading position in South Africa should be directed to Lloyd's SA in the first instance.

As notified in Market Bulletin Y3913, Lloyd's South Africa (Pty) Ltd is authorised to accept service of suit on behalf of underwriters. Underwriters should therefore ensure that Lloyd's South Africa (Pty) Ltd is named for service of suit on all insurance documentation.
