Background

Enrico Bertagna, Lloyd's General Representative in Italy, will leave Lloyd's on 31 August 2013.

Nicoletta Andreotti is currently the Manager, Legal & Compliance, in Lloyd's Italian office. With effect from 1 September 2013 she will perform this role simultaneously with the role of General Representative for a temporary period. This arrangement will continue until Lloyd's has appointed a permanent Country Manager for Italy. Nicoletta will not have any market development responsibilities and such enquiries must be directed to International Markets in London (see below).

Policy documents

The signature of the current General Representative on coverholder certificates produced via Doprnt and Mocha and on other documents will be changed as soon as possible.
