

Canada

We're continuing to explore Lloyd's global footprint in our Multinational Around the World series Next stop: Canada

Lloyd's underwriters are licensed to write Canadian insurance / reinsurance business, supported by our global network, which has an established local presence in the country.

As part of our existing framework, the robust Attorney-in-Fact Signing Process System (ASPS) allows you to issue Canadian policies with ease.

- Accelerate market entry by leveraging Lloyd's licensing through a local Canadian coverholder, Open Market Correspondent (OMC), or service company — eliminating the need for on-the-ground personnel.
- Gain regulatory confidence with direct access to Lloyd's Canada-based experts who provide guidance and ensure full compliance with local standards.
- Streamline regulatory processes by using the Attorney-in-Fact Signing Process System (ASPS), which seamlessly converts London-issued contracts into Canadian-compliant local policies —reducing administrative burden and enhancing operational efficiency.
