Corporate Members: Accounting, Audit and Declarations of Compliance – Part E of the Membership Byelaw

Audit – paragraph 31 of the Membership Byelaw

9. A person shall be eligible to act as auditor for a corporate member if –
- (a) in the case of a corporate member to which Part VII of the Companies Act 1985 applies, he has been appointed as the auditor of that corporate member in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act 1985;
 - (b) in the case of a corporate member which is incorporated in any member state of the European Community other than the United Kingdom, he is qualified to act as an auditor of a company for the purposes of the legislation of that member state which implements the Eighth Council Directive (84/253/EEC);
 - (c) in any other case, the Council has given its prior written consent.

Dispute resolution – Part I of the Membership Byelaw

Dispute resolution – paragraph 51 of the Membership Byelaw

10. The following arrangements and procedures are designed to resolve disputes between a syndicate (through the managing agent which manages that syndicate) and the Council in the event that, as part of the calculation of the syndicate members' capital requirements, the Council decides to substitute a higher number for the syndicate ICA submitted by the managing agent.

1. "Minded to" decision

1.1 Before such a decision (a "relevant decision") is taken on behalf of the Council the decision taker will, unless he considers the circumstances make it inappropriate or impractical to do so –

- (a) inform the managing agent that the decision taker is minded to decide the matter in that way;
- (b) provide the managing agent with the decision taker's reasons for deciding the matter in that way; and
- (c) allow the managing agent 5 working days to make representations to the decision taker prior to the relevant decision being taken.

2. Provision of reasons for the decision

2.1 When a relevant decision has been taken the decision taker will, unless he considers the circumstances make it inappropriate or impractical to do so, provide the managing agent with his reasons for deciding the matter in that way.

3. Request to review a relevant decision

Step 1 – submitting a request for the decision to be reviewed

3.1 Where the managing agent reasonably and objectively considers the relevant decision to be unreasonable it may request that the decision is reviewed (a "request").

3.2 A request shall be made in writing within 5 working days of the receipt of the relevant decision. The request shall include an explanation as to why the managing agent considers that the relevant decision is unreasonable. The request shall be made on behalf of the board of directors of the managing agent and shall be signed by a director of the managing agent. The request shall be submitted to the decision taker.

Step 2 – review of the decision by the original decision taker

- 3.3 Following receipt of the request, the decision taker shall review the request and may, where he considers appropriate, amend, modify or withdraw the relevant decision.

Step 3 – Review of the decision by the Chief Financial Officer

- 3.4 Where the decision taker does not propose to amend, modify or withdraw the relevant decision he shall refer the request to the Chief Financial Officer (the “Director”). The request shall be reviewed by the Director and where the Director considers appropriate, the relevant decision may be amended, modified or withdrawn.

Step 4 – Review of the decision by the Market Supervision and Review Committee

- 3.5 If, following the review of the request by the Director, the managing agent still reasonably and objectively considers the decision to be unreasonable, the managing agent may within 5 working days apply to the Market Supervision and Review Committee (“MSARC”) to review the request. The application shall be made on behalf of the board of directors and shall be signed by two directors of the managing agent. The application shall be submitted to the Secretary to the Council.
- 3.6 MSARC may give such directions as it considers appropriate for the determination of the request. MSARC shall review the request and may, where it considers appropriate, direct that the relevant decision is redetermined by the decision taker and may give the decision taker any directions it considers appropriate in respect of that redetermination, or in exceptional circumstances, MSARC may amend, modify or withdraw the relevant decision.

Miscellaneous and Transitional Provisions – Part J of the Membership Byelaw

Service of notices on members – Paragraph 53 of the Membership Byelaw

11. All notices and other communications by the Society which require to be served on or given to an individual member of the Society shall for all purposes be deemed to be effectively served on such member if sent through the post to or left at the address of his members' agent. If an individual member does not at any time have a member's agent, such notices and communications shall be deemed to be effectively served on the member if given to him personally or sent to him by post at the latest correspondence address of the member shown in the records of the Society.
12. Where an individual member is deceased or bankrupt, all notices and other communications shall be deemed to have been effectively served on his personal representatives or trustee in bankruptcy if sent through the post to the address supplied to the Society by such personal representatives or trustee in bankruptcy or (until such address has been supplied) if sent through the post to the latest correspondence address of the individual member shown in the records of the Society.
13. Each corporate member which is incorporated in a jurisdiction outside the United Kingdom shall at all times maintain an agent for service of process in England which shall be any member's agent appointed by the corporate member or such other person with a place of business in the United Kingdom as the corporate member may have appointed for the purpose of this paragraph and whose name and address has been notified to the Society.
14. All notices and communications by the Society to be sent to or served on a corporate member shall be deemed to have been effectively served on the corporate member –
 - (a) if it has a member's agent, if it is sent through the post to or left at the address of its members' agent;
 - (b) if it has no members' agent, in the case of a corporate member incorporated in the United Kingdom, if sent through the post to or left at the registered office for the time being and in the case of a corporate member incorporated outside the United Kingdom, if sent through the post to or left at the address of the agent appointed under paragraph 13.
15. Any notices or other communications which are –
 - (a) sent to a member or its agent by post shall be deemed to have been effectively served by properly addressing, prepaying and posting such proceedings, notice or communication and shall be deemed to have been received 72 hours from the time of posting;

- (b) left at the address of the members' agent or left for collection by the members' agent at the address of the Society in accordance with arrangements made between the agent and the Society shall be deemed to have been received on the date so left;
- (c) left at the address of an agent appointed under paragraph 13 or at the registered office of the corporate member shall be deemed to have been received on the date so left.
