LLOYD'S GOVERNANCE TERMS OF REFERENCE

Introduction

These terms of reference implement Lloyd's governance arrangements by which the Council operates. They also set out the terms of the delegation of authority to committees, panels, boards and persons and permit for sub-delegation including to the Lloyd's executive.

These are made pursuant to Section 6(5), (5A) and (5B) Lloyd's Act 1982 and Part 4 of the Constitutional Requirements (in the Constitutional Arrangements Byelaw) and are subject to any applicable provisions in Lloyd's Acts, Byelaws and in the Constitutional Requirements.

Overview of these terms of reference

The Council's terms of reference

Section 1 of these terms of reference provide the terms of reference for the Council (and are rules made pursuant to paragraph 4.27 of the Constitutional Requirements).

Delegation by the Council to committees

Section 2 of these terms of reference provide the terms of the delegation by the Council to committees of the Council and to the Chairman and Deputy Chairs, and set out the extent and conditions or restrictions that apply to those delegations. The terms of the delegations in Section 2 may only be revoked or amended by the Council by way of special resolution.

2.1 The Committees of the Council

2.1.1 Nominations & Governance Committee

1. Membership

- 1.1 The Nominations & Governance Committee shall comprise not more than 8 members. Its members shall be members of the Council save that the Chief Executive Officer and the other executive directors shall not be members of the Nominations & Governance Committee.
- 1.2 Only members of the Nominations & Governance Committee have the right to attend committee meetings. The Chief Executive Officer should normally attend meetings of the Nominations & Governance Committee other than when it is dealing with the matter of the succession of the Chief Executive Officer. Other individuals such as the Chief Human Resources Officer, the Chairman of the Board of Directors of Lloyd's Insurance Company ("LIC") and external advisers may be invited to attend for all or part of any meeting, as and when appropriate and necessary.
- 1.3 Appointments to the Nominations & Governance Committee are made by the Council.
- 1.4 The Council shall appoint the Chairman of Lloyd's as the Chairman of the Nominations & Governance Committee. In the absence of the Chairman of the Nominations & Governance Committee, the remaining members present shall elect one of themselves to chair the meeting. The Chairman of Lloyd's shall not chair the committee when it is dealing with the matter of the succession of the chairmanship. The Chairman shall be responsible for chairing and overseeing the Nominations & Governance Committee.

2. Secretary

- 2.1 The Secretary to the Council or his nominee shall act as secretary of the Nominations & Governance Committee.

3. Quorum

- 3.1 The quorum necessary for meetings of the Nominations & Governance Committee shall be 3 members present. A duly convened meeting of the Nominations & Governance Committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by the committee.
- 3.2 A member of the Nominations & Governance Committee entitled to be present at a meeting of the Nominations & Governance Committee shall be deemed to be present for all purposes if he is able by telephonic device to be heard by all those present or deemed to be present at the meeting simultaneously. A person so deemed to be present shall be entitled to vote and be counted in the quorum accordingly.

4. Meetings

- 4.1 The Nominations & Governance Committee shall meet at least twice a year and otherwise at the discretion of the Chairman of the Nominations & Governance Committee or as directed by the Council.

5. Notice of meetings

- 5.1 Meetings of the Nominations & Governance Committee shall be called by the secretary of the committee at the request of the Chairman of the Nominations & Governance Committee or where directed by the Council.
- 5.2. Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date together with an agenda of items to be discussed, shall be forwarded, unless not reasonably practical, to each member of the committee no later than 5 working days before the date of the meeting. Supporting papers shall be sent to committee members at the same time.

6. Minutes of meetings

- 6.1 The secretary shall minute the proceedings and resolutions of all committee meetings, including the names of those present and in attendance.
- 6.2 Minutes of committee meetings shall be circulated to all members of the committee and, once agreed, to all members of the Council unless it would be inappropriate to do so.

7. Annual General Meeting

- 7.1 The Chairman of the Nominations & Governance Committee shall attend the Annual General Meeting prepared to respond to any member's questions on the committee's activities.

8. Duties and powers

- 8.1 The Nominations & Governance Committee shall –
- a. keep under review the governance arrangements and leadership needs of the Society and its subsidiaries; and
 - b. keep up to date and fully informed about strategic issues and commercial changes affecting the Corporation, the Lloyd's market and the international insurance market.
- 8.2 Specifically the Nominations & Governance Committee shall have the following duties and powers –

The Chairman and Chief Executive Officer

- a. to propose to the Council candidates for election as Chairman of Lloyd's and for the position of Chief Executive Officer, Chief Financial Officer and Chief of Markets;
- b. where the committee is seeking to identify a person for election as Chairman of Lloyd's, to prepare a job specification, including the time commitment expected. The proposed Chairman's other significant commitments should be disclosed to the Council before election as Chairman and any changes to the Chairman's commitments should be disclosed to the Council as they arise;

Nominated Members of the Council

- c. to propose to the Council candidates for appointment as nominated members of the Council taking into account the skills, knowledge and experience of the Council;
- d. to review the results of the Council's evaluation of its performance that relates to the composition of the Council;

- e. to propose to the Council candidates for appointment as members of the Committees of the Council, and with the Chairman of the Capacity Transfer Panel, the list of alternate members of that Panel;

Other appointments

- f. to propose to the Council candidates for any appointments required to be made by the Council under the Lloyd's Acts, Lloyd's byelaws and/or any deed instrument or contract including but not limited to the Chairman and Deputy Chairmen of the Lloyd's Appeal Tribunal, the Lloyd's Members' Ombudsman and Deputy Members' Ombudsman, and trustees of the Lloyd's Charities Trust, Lloyd's Tercentenary Research Foundation, and the Lloyd's Benevolent Fund;
- g. to propose to the Council candidates for appointment to the Board of Directors of LIC, the Chief Executive Officer of LIC and the executive directors of LIC;

Re-appointment

- h. to consider the re-appointment of any person as Chairman of Lloyd's or as a nominated member of Council at the conclusion of their specified term of office having due regard to their performance and ability to continue to contribute in the light of the knowledge, skills and experience required;

The executive

- i. whereas the appointment of the members of the Executive Committee who are not members of the Council is a matter for the Chief Executive Officer in consultation with the Chairman of Lloyd's, the Chief Executive Officer should liaise and consult with the Nominations & Governance Committee in this regard;
- j. on the advice of the Chief Executive Officer in consultation with the Chairman of Lloyd's, to recommend to Council the person to be appointed as Secretary to the Council;

Succession planning

- k. to formulate plans for succession planning in particular for the key roles of the Chairman of Lloyd's and the Chief Executive Officer (and also for the nominated members of Council, other executive directors, members of the Board of Directors and the executive directors of LIC, and such other members of the executive management or other persons as it is designated to consider or where their remuneration levels are above such thresholds as the Remuneration Committee may from time to time determine) taking into account the challenges and opportunities facing Lloyd's and the skills and expertise needed for these roles;

Governance

- l. to monitor and, at least annually, review, the effectiveness of the governance structure, policies and practices of the Society taking into account best practice;
- m. to monitor developments in investor ESG expectations;
- n. to coordinate with such other Committees and Groups of the Council as appropriate from time to time, including (but not limited to) the Sustainability Committee; and to consider such other matters as the Council may from time to time refer to the Nominations & Governance Committee.

8.3 Before making any recommendation regarding candidates for appointment to the Council, the Nominations & Governance Committee shall use its best endeavours to evaluate the balance of skills, knowledge, experience and diversity on the Council, and, in the light of this evaluation, prepare a description of the role and capabilities required for the particular appointment. In identifying suitable candidates the committee shall -

- a. use open advertising and/or the services of external advisers to facilitate the search;
- b. consider candidates from a wide range of backgrounds;

- c. consider candidates on merit and against objective criteria and with due regard for the benefits of diversity, including gender, taking care that appointees have enough time available to devote to the position;
- d. identify and nominate the best candidates for appointment; and
- e. ensure that the Council, as a whole, contains significant insurance and reinsurance knowledge and expertise.

9. Reporting responsibilities

- 9.1 The Nominations & Governance Committee shall be accountable to the Council for properly performing its functions.
- 9.2 The Nominations & Governance Committee shall report to the Council on its proceedings after each meeting on all matters relating to its duties and powers.
- 9.3 The Nominations & Governance Committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Council it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed.
- 9.4 The Nominations & Governance Committee shall submit a written report to the Council annually or at such other times as the Council may require and the Nominations & Governance Committee shall produce a report to be included in the Annual Report about its activities, the process used to make appointments including information as to the use of external advice or open advertising.

10. Other matters

- 10.1 The Nominations & Governance Committee shall -
 - a. have access to sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties and in exercising its powers, including access to the Chief Human Resources Officer and the Council Secretariat function for assistance as required;
 - b. be provided with appropriate and timely training, both in the form of an induction programme for new members and on an ongoing basis for all members;
 - c. give due consideration to laws, regulations and rules including, where appropriate, the UK Corporate Governance Code and also relevant provisions in Lloyd's Acts 1871-1982 and the Constitutional Arrangements Byelaw; and

- d. arrange for periodic reviews of its own performance and, at least annually, review its terms of reference to ensure it is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the Council for approval.
- 10.2 Members of the Nominations & Governance Committee shall be subject to the same duties and responsibilities which apply to Council members (as set out in Part 3 of the Constitutional Requirements).
- 10.3 Members of the Nominations & Governance Committee are entitled to an indemnity from the Society of Lloyd's in a form determined pursuant to paragraph 7.16 of the Constitutional Requirements.

11. Decisions and Resolution

Decisions

- 11.1 Any decision by the Nominations & Governance Committee shall be made by a simple majority of the members of the Nominations & Governance Committee present at the meeting provided that in the event of a tie the chairman of the meeting shall have the casting vote.

Paper Meetings

- 11.2 Where it proves impracticable to convene a meeting of the Nominations & Governance Committee, the papers may be sent to all members of the Nominations & Governance Committee and any decision made and affirmed in writing by at least 4 of the members of the Nominations & Governance Committee, one of the votes being that of the Chairman of the Nominations & Governance Committee, shall be valid and effective as if it had been made at a meeting of the Nominations & Governance Committee duly convened and held, provided that no member of the Nominations & Governance Committee objects to the decision being made by way of a paper meeting. Any decision by way of a paper meeting shall be reported to the Nominations & Governance Committee at its next meeting.

12. Authorities

- 12.1 The Nominations & Governance Committee shall have all necessary powers and authorities of the Council, other than those reserved to the Council, in order to properly perform its functions.
- 12.2 The Nominations & Governance Committee is authorised to obtain, at the Corporation's expense, external professional advice on any matters within its terms of reference. Where the Nominations & Governance Committee considers that it requires external legal advice, the Secretary to the Nominations & Governance Committee shall, prior to seeking that advice, liaise with the Head of Legal.

2.1.2 Remuneration Committee

1. Membership

- 1.1 The Remuneration Committee shall comprise not more than 7 members. Its members shall be members of the Council save that the Chief Executive Officer and the other executive directors shall not be members of the Remuneration Committee.
- 1.2 Only members of the Remuneration Committee have the right to attend committee meetings. The Chief Executive Officer should normally attend meetings of the Remuneration Committee other than when it is dealing with the remuneration of the Chief Executive Officer. Other individuals such as the Chief People Officer and external advisers may be invited to attend for all or part of any meeting, as and when appropriate and necessary.
- 1.3 Appointments to the Remuneration Committee are made by the Council upon the advice of the Nominations & Governance Committee.
- 1.4 The Council shall appoint the Chairman of the Remuneration Committee from amongst the members of the Remuneration Committee. In the absence of the Chairman of the Remuneration Committee, the remaining members present shall elect one of themselves to chair the meeting. The Chairman of Lloyd's shall be a member, but not chair, of the Remuneration Committee. The Remuneration Committee Chairman shall be responsible for chairing and overseeing the Remuneration Committee and, in particular, shall be responsible for overseeing the development and implementation of Lloyd's remuneration policies and practices.

2. Secretary

- 2.1 The Head of Reward or their nominee shall act as secretary of the Remuneration Committee.

3. Quorum

- 3.1 The quorum necessary for meetings of the Remuneration Committee shall be 3 members present. A duly convened meeting of the Remuneration Committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by the committee.
- 3.2 A member of the Remuneration Committee entitled to be present at a meeting of the Remuneration Committee shall be deemed to be present for all purposes if he is able by telephonic device to be heard by all those present or deemed to be present at the meeting simultaneously. A person so deemed to be present shall be entitled to vote and be counted in the quorum accordingly.

4. Meetings

- 4.1 The Remuneration Committee shall meet at least twice a year and otherwise at the discretion of the Chairman of the Remuneration Committee or as directed by the Council.

5. Notice of meetings

- 5.1 Meetings of the Remuneration Committee shall be called by Council Secretariat at the request of the Chairman of the Remuneration Committee or where directed by the Council.
- 5.2. Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date together with an agenda of items to be discussed, shall be forwarded, unless not reasonably practical, to each member of the committee no later than 5 working days before the date of the meeting. Supporting papers shall be sent to committee members at the same time.

6. Minutes of meetings

- 6.1 The secretary shall minute the proceedings and resolutions of all committee meetings, including the names of those present and in attendance.
- 6.2 Minutes of committee meetings shall be circulated to all members of the committee.

7. Annual General Meeting

- 7.1 The Chairman of the Remuneration Committee shall attend the Annual General Meeting prepared to respond to any member's questions on the committee's activities.

8. Duties and powers

- 8.1 The Remuneration Committee shall have the following duties and powers –

Remuneration policy

- a. to set the policy for the remuneration of the Chairman of Lloyd's, the Chief Executive Officer, the executive directors, any other direct reports of the Chief Executive Officer and such other members of the executive management or other persons (including individual consultants) as it is designated to consider or where their remuneration levels are above such thresholds as the committee may from time to time determine;

- b. in reviewing such policy, the Remuneration Committee shall take into account all factors which it deems necessary including relevant legal and regulatory requirements, including any applicable provisions and recommendations in the UK Corporate Governance Code and associated guidance. The objective of such policy shall be to ensure those subject to the policy are provided with appropriate incentives measured against appropriate metrics to encourage enhanced performance and are, in a fair and responsible manner, rewarded for their individual contributions to the success of the Corporation and of the Lloyd's market as a whole;
- c. to approve the list of Solvency II staff and ensure that the remuneration policy incorporates specific arrangements for Solvency II staff which meet the relevant criteria set out in the Solvency II regulation and any associated guidance from the Prudential Regulation Authority;
- d. within the terms of the remuneration policy and in consultation with the Council, the Chairman of Lloyd's and/or the Chief Executive Officer, as appropriate, to set the total individual remuneration package, including any bonuses and incentive payments, of the Chairman of Lloyd's, the Chief Executive Officer, each executive director, any other direct reports of the Chief Executive Officer and such other members of the executive management or other persons (to include named SMCR roles, all roles defined as Solvency II staff for remuneration purposes and individual consultants) as it is designated to consider or where their remuneration levels are above such thresholds as the committee may from time to time determine;
- e. to obtain reliable, up-to-date information about remuneration in other companies (including companies in the Lloyd's market) and in this regard the Remuneration Committee may appoint remuneration consultants or commission or purchase any relevant reports (subject to any budgetary restraints imposed by the Council);
- f. to liaise with the Risk Committee on the alignment of risk and remuneration, to ensure that risk and risk culture are properly considered in developing the remuneration policy and risk weightings are appropriately applied to performance objectives incorporated in senior management remuneration. The Chief Risk Officer will be invited to attend meetings to provide input into the remuneration policy and process. When consideration is given to incentive risk adjustments:

- i. the Remuneration Committee will consider reports from the Chief Risk Officer, the Head of Internal Audit and the Chief Financial Officer; and
 - ii. a member of the Risk Committee will attend the Remuneration Committee (as a member of the Remuneration Committee or otherwise) ensuring that the process takes into account all relevant risk matters.
- g. to appoint and set the terms of reference for any remuneration consultants who advise the Remuneration Committee;

Incentive schemes

- h. to oversee the operation of and make any amendments to any incentive schemes operated by the Corporation including the Lloyd's Bonus Scheme and agree any new schemes;

Pensions and other benefits

- i. to consider the policy for, and scope of, pension arrangements for the Chief Executive Officer, each of the executive directors, any other direct reports of the Chief Executive Officer and such other members of the executive management or other persons as it is designated to consider or where their remuneration levels are above such thresholds as the committee may from time to time determine;
- j. to advise on any major changes in employee benefits structures throughout the Corporation (and its subsidiaries) and to review any proposed annual percentage increase in salary for all Corporation employees (including employees of Corporation subsidiaries);
- k. to consider whether incentive schemes drive behaviours consistent with Lloyd's purpose, values and strategy, coordinating with such other Committees and Groups of the Council as appropriate from time to time, including (but not limited to), the Sustainability Committee;

Termination

- l. to oversee any contractual terms on termination of employment of the Chairman of Lloyd's, the Chief Executive Officer, an executive director, any other direct report of the Chief Executive Officer and such other members of the executive management or other persons it is designated to consider or where their remuneration levels are above such threshold as the committee may from time to time determine, and any payments made, to ensure that they are fair to the individual and the Corporation and that failure is not rewarded;

Evaluation

- m. to review annually the performance of the Chairman, the Chief Executive Officer, the executive directors, any other direct reports of the Chief Executive Officer and such other members of the executive management or other persons as it is designated to consider or where their remuneration levels are above such thresholds as the committee may from time to time determine;

Other advice

- n. remuneration of members of the Council and its committees (other than where those members are executive directors) is a matter for Council on the recommendation of the Chairman of Lloyd's and the Chief Executive Officer. The Chairman of Lloyd's and the Chief Executive Officer may liaise and consult with the Remuneration Committee in this regard as they think appropriate; and
- o. to consider such other matters as the Council may from time to time refer to the Remuneration Committee.

8.2 No-one shall be involved in any discussion or decision of the Remuneration Committee regarding their own remuneration or in the evaluation of their own performance.

9. Reporting responsibilities

9.1 The Remuneration Committee shall be accountable to the Council for properly performing its functions.

9.2 The Remuneration Committee shall report to the Council on its proceedings after each meeting on all matters relating to its duties and powers in particular in respect of the application of the remuneration policy.

9.3 The Remuneration Committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Council it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed.

9.4 The Remuneration Committee shall submit a written report to the Council annually or at such other times as the Council may require and the Remuneration Committee shall produce a report of the Corporation's remuneration policy and practices to be included in the Annual Report to be considered at the Annual General Meeting.

10. Other matters

10.1 The Remuneration Committee shall -

- a. have access to sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties and in exercising its powers, including access to remuneration consultants, the Chief People Officer and Council Secretariat for assistance as required;
- b. be provided with appropriate and timely training, both in the form of an induction programme for new members and on an ongoing basis for all members;
- c. give due consideration to laws, regulations and rules including, where appropriate, the UK Corporate Governance Code; and
- d. arrange for periodic reviews of its own performance and, at least annually, review its terms of reference to ensure it is operating at maximum effectiveness and recommend any changes it considers necessary to the Council for approval.

10.2 Members of the Remuneration Committee shall be subject to the same duties and responsibilities which apply to Council members (as set out in Part 3 of the Constitutional Requirements).

10.3 Members of the Remuneration Committee are entitled to an indemnity from the Society of Lloyd's in a form determined pursuant to paragraph 7.16 of the Constitutional Requirements.

11. Decisions and Resolution

Decisions

4.3 The quorum of meetings of the Lloyd's Enforcement Board shall be 3 members present and shall include at least one of whom shall be an individual who falls within Section 7, subsection 1A of Lloyd's Act 1982.

Decisions

- 4.4 Any decision of the Lloyd's Enforcement Board shall be made by a simple majority of the members of Lloyd's Enforcement Board

Records

- 4.5 Records shall be maintained of the proceedings of the Lloyd's Enforcement Board.

Paper Meetings

- 4.6 Where it proves impracticable to convene a meeting of the Lloyd's Enforcement Board, the papers may be sent to all members of the Lloyd's Enforcement Board and any decision made and affirmed in writing by at least 3 of the members of the Lloyd's Enforcement Board eligible to vote, subject to the majority of those voting being members of the Lloyd's Enforcement Board who are members of the Society shall be valid and effective as if it had been made at a meeting of the Lloyd's Enforcement Board duly convened and held, provided always that any such decision is reported to the Lloyd's Enforcement Board at its next meeting.

5. Power to obtain assistance

- 5.1 In the performance of its functions and in the exercise of its powers the Lloyd's Enforcement Board may obtain assistance from any person.

6. Reporting

- 6.1 The Lloyd's Enforcement Board shall submit a written report to the Council annually in respect of the activities, resources and finances of the Enforcement Committees of the Society.
- 6.2 The Lloyd's Enforcement Board may submit reports to the Council or to the Chairman of Lloyd's at such other times as the Lloyd's Enforcement Board or the Chairman of the Lloyd's Enforcement Board may decide.

7. Emergency Powers of the Chairman and Deputy Chairman of the Lloyd's Enforcement Board

- 7.1 The Lloyd's Enforcement Board may act by its Chairman (or Deputy Chairman) in respect of any of its functions and powers set out in these terms of reference.
- 7.2 The power to act through the Chairman of the Lloyd's Enforcement Board (or Deputy Chairman of the Lloyd's Enforcement Board) may be used where –
- a. it is not reasonably practicable to convene a meeting of the Lloyd's Enforcement Board; and
 - b. the matter is urgent.
- 7.3 Any exercise of these emergency powers shall be reported to the next meeting of the Lloyd's Enforcement Board.

8. Indemnity

- 8.1 Members of the Lloyd's Enforcement Board and of any Enforcement Tribunal appointed by it are entitled to an indemnity from the Society of Lloyd's in a form determined pursuant to paragraph 7.16 of the Constitutional Requirements.

- a. have access to sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties and in exercising its powers, including access to Council Secretariat for assistance as required;
 - b. be provided with appropriate and timely training; and
 - c. give due consideration to laws, regulations and rules including, where appropriate, the UK Corporate Governance Code and also relevant provisions in Lloyd's Acts 1871-1982 and the Constitutional Arrangements Byelaw.

2.3 The Chairman and Deputy Chairmen of Lloyd's (including the Senior Independent Deputy Chairman)

1. Appointment of the Chairman and Deputy Chairmen of Lloyd's

- 1.1 In accordance with section 4 of Lloyd's Act 1982, the Council annually elects from among the members of the Council a Chairman of the Council, who shall be called the Chairman of Lloyd's, and two or more Deputy Chairmen, each of whom shall be called a Deputy Chairman of Lloyd's. Where the person elected as Chairman is not a working member of the Society, at least one of the Deputy Chairmen must be elected from among the working members of the Council.
- 1.2 The Council shall designate one of the Deputy Chairmen elected in accordance with paragraph 1.1 above to be the senior independent Deputy Chairman. Save where the Council considers otherwise, the Deputy Chairman to be designated as the senior independent Deputy Chairman shall normally be a nominated member of Council (other than the Chairman or an Executive Director).

2. Functions and powers of the Chairman

- 2.1 It is recognised and acknowledged that the role of the Chairman should be distinct from that of the Chief Executive Officer (CEO). The Chairman's principal responsibility is to create the conditions to ensure the overall effectiveness of the Council and its non-executive members. The Council has delegated to the CEO the executive responsibility for the running of the affairs of the Corporation. The Chairman shall maintain an open and effective dialogue with the CEO and respect and support the CEO's authority to exercise their judgment and make decisions in the performance of their functions but this will not prevent the Chairman from holding the CEO to account for the performance of their functions.
- 2.2 The functions of the Chairman shall be –
- a. to chair, oversee the performance of and ensure the proper and efficient conduct of meetings of the Council, making sure that Council is properly engaged in the development of policies relating to the strategy and operations of the Lloyd's market and the Corporation;

- b. to ensure that the members of the Council receive accurate, timely and clear information to enable the Council to make sound decisions, monitor effectively and provide advice to promote the success of the Society;
- c. to manage the Council to allow enough time for discussion of complex or contentious issues and ensure that members, particularly non-executive members, have sufficient time to consider critical issues and obtain answers to any questions or concerns they may have;
- d. to oversee the assessment of fitness and propriety of the members of the Council;
- e. to lead the development and monitor the effective implementation of policies and procedures for the induction, training and professional development of all members of the Council;
- f. to chair General Meetings of the Society including the Annual General Meeting;
- g. to oversee Lloyd's governance arrangements making sure they are effective and that the Council fulfils its responsibilities;
- h. through the Council, to have responsibility for monitoring the formulation of Lloyd's strategy;
- i. to hold the Chief Executive Officer responsible for implementation of Council policies, the effective management of the Corporation and the discharge of the Chief Executive Officer's wider responsibilities;
- j. through the Council, to ensure that Lloyd's is effectively supervising, regulating and directing the business of insurance at Lloyd's;
- k. to promote Lloyd's interests at home and abroad, in collaboration with the Chief Executive Officer, to members and policyholders and with regulators and governments where Lloyd's operates or wishes to operate, and generally to advance Lloyd's standing within the world-wide insurance market, the London insurance market and the City of London;
- l. to chair the Nominations & Governance Committee and in that regard to consider recommendations for appointments of the Chief Executive Officer, Deputy Chairmen, members of the Council and relevant committees, and to be assured that processes are in place to ensure that they are held accountable for their performance;

- m. to act, where necessary, on behalf of the Council, either directly or through delegation, on any matter which would normally be within its scope of responsibility, but which requires immediate attention;
- n. with the Chief Executive Officer, to make recommendations to Council as to the remuneration of members of the Council, and its committees (other than where those members are executive directors); and
- o. to perform any function or power provided or permitted in the Lloyd's Acts or any other byelaw, regulation or requirement.

2.2 The Chairman shall have the following powers –

- a. to direct the business of insurance at Lloyd's (which may include giving any direction to any member of the Society, Lloyd's broker, underwriting agent, director or partner of a Lloyd's broker or underwriting agent or person who works for a Lloyd's broker or underwriting agent in such capacity as may from time to time be specified by the Council);
- b. to carry out or exercise any duty, responsibility, right, power, function or discretion imposed or conferred upon the Council by any enactment (including Lloyd's Acts 1871 to 1982) or byelaw or regulation made in pursuance thereof or by any other instrument having the effect of law or by any other document or arrangement whatsoever, in so far as such delegation is not prohibited by any enactment, byelaw, regulation, instrument, document or arrangement, and
 - i. where it would not be reasonably practicable to convene a meeting of the Council; and
 - ii. where the carrying out or exercise of the duty, responsibility, right, power, function or discretion is urgent;
- c. pursuant to the terms of the power of attorney entered into by each member as a condition of membership, to exercise the Council's power of nomination of individuals as attorneys or agents for members of the Society; and
- d. to attest the common seal of Lloyd's and sign documents in writing on behalf of Lloyd's.

3. Functions and powers of the Deputy Chairmen

- 3.1 The functions of each Deputy Chairman shall be –
- a. to provide advice and support to the Chairman and, where appropriate, the Chief Executive Officer and the executive directors;
 - b. to support the Chairman in the promotion and protection of Lloyd's brand and reputation worldwide;
 - c. to attest the common seal of Lloyd's and sign documents in writing on behalf of Lloyd's; and
 - d. to perform any function or exercise any power provided or permitted in the Lloyd's Acts or any other byelaw, regulation or requirement where it is not reasonably practical or appropriate for the Chairman to perform the function or exercise that power.
- 3.2 In the event of the Chairman's absence, any one of the Deputy Chairmen as designated by the Council may perform some or all of the functions of the Chairman as set out at paragraph 2.1 above as the Council may determine.
- 3.3 Each Deputy Chairman shall have the same powers of the Chairman, as set out at paragraph 2.2 above.

Senior Independent Deputy Chairman

- 3.4 In addition, the senior independent Deputy Chairman designated by Council in accordance with paragraph 1.2 above shall have the following functions and powers –
- a. to provide a sounding board for the Chairman and to serve as an intermediary for the other members of Council where necessary;
 - b. to lead the performance evaluation of the Chairman taking into account, as relevant, the views of the nominated members of Council and the Chief Executive;
 - c. to chair the Nominations & Governance Committee when it is considering succession to the role of Chairman; and

- d. to hold at least 2 private meetings a year with the non-executive members of the Council to listen to their views so as to develop a balanced understanding of any issues or concerns which they may have and to use one of these meetings to review the Chairman's performance in accordance with paragraph 3.4(b) above.

4. Records

- 4.1 Records shall be maintained of any exercise of any power by the Chairman or a Deputy Chairman.

5. Power to obtain assistance

- 5.1 In the exercise of their powers the Chairman and each Deputy Chairman may obtain assistance from any person.

6. Reporting

- 6.1 The carrying out or exercise of any power by the Chairman or a Deputy Chairman shall be reported to the next meeting of the Council.
- 6.2 The Chairman or Deputy Chairmen may also make reports to the Council at such other times as the Chairman or Deputy Chairmen may decide.
