What you need to know

This bulletin is to remind all stakeholders that the table sets out certain regulatory reporting requirements. It lists the jurisdiction, a short description of the requirement, to whom reporting is to be made, when to report, the reporting method and additional information of the requirements.

The responsibility to file report(s) with regulatory authorities needs to be agreed upon between the Coverholder/Open Market Correspondent and/or Third Party Administrator, the Lloyd's Broker and the Managing Agent. Please ensure this is done prior to placing business at Lloyd's.

What's changed

Topics with regards to Unclaimed Personal Property & Vested Property and Professional Indemnity/E&O have been updated to clarify requirements. Please ensure you review these sections carefully.
